Writing Designation

Number of credits offered for W sections of course.

Number of Sections per Academic Year Enrollment per Section (Avg.)

If the course is a variable topics course (e.g., 289, 489, 291, or a course that regularly changes in topic such as "Studies in Rhetoric"), how will the department ensure that the course consistently meets the requirements for a W course?

Do any assistants (i.e., GATs or undergraduates) help with the course?

- Yes No

No more than 10% of the final grade can be determined by undergraduate assistants. This does not include the use of Peerceptiv.

Pick a syllabus statement:

- To pass this course, you must pass the writing components. [NOTE: In this case the student will receive a failing grade.]
- To receive W credit for this course, you must pass the writing components. [NOTE: In this case the section number would be changed from a 900 to a 500, so the student would pass the course but would not receive W credit.]

Information

List all graded writing assignments along with the approximate word count of each. (Note that for most 12-point fonts there are about 250 words on a page if double-spaced and 500 if single-spaced.) In addition, list the percentage of the final grade each assignment represents.

Explain how collaboration is monitored to ensure equal participation.

Describe the formative feedback provided on student writing, especially on major assignments. Formative feedback is feedback given before a grade is assigned. You can meet this requirement with comments on drafts or with peer review, or you can give feedback on graded writing if there are 5 or more assignments in the same genre.

Describe how you provide writing instruction.
